FREE ONLINE BIBLE STUDY ON PRAYER THIS THURSDAY!

Though prayer is one of the essentials of a thriving faith, we often feel as if we're talking to ourselves, or, worse, we feel like we're talking to no one at all...

How can something so vital to the faith be so elusive?

Join us online this Thursday, 10:30am or 7:00pm. - Learn how Lectio Prayer enables you to enter into a dialogue with God and what it means to truly encounter God in daily life. This study will benefit those new to prayer and the experienced alike! "Prayer: Finding Intimacy with God" Bible Study started last week but it's not too late to join us! FIRST READING

Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.
(Prv 31:30-31)

PSALM

Blessed are those who fear the Lord. (Ps 128)

SECOND READING

For all of you are children of the light
and children of the day.
We are not of the night or of darkness.
Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do,
but let us stay alert and sober. (1 Thes 5:5-6)

GOSPEL

"His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'" (Mt 25:21)

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God has entrusted his possessions to us. God's possessions are not earthly, physical things like ours: a home, bank account, personal items, and so forth. God's possessions are far greater and deeper. God's greatest possession is His very Self and it is precisely this pearl of great price that He bestows freely upon us. What are we going to do with it? Nourishing the fruits of wisdom is of the first order in determining how we are going to use what God has given. Understanding that His gift has not been given purely for our self-benefit is another. Wisdom asks us to broaden our horizons to embrace all avenues of human life, including the needs of the poor, the marginalized, and the needy. Manifested primarily in the virtues of faith, hope, and love, what God has entrusted to us can multiply exponentially if we invest His gift wisely and reap the greatest benefits. While it requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work, we will experience tremendous joy when we realize just how much confidence God has in us. Not acting on something out of fear or lack of trust serves no purpose and is of no use to either God or ourselves.

God, help me to use my time, my money and my special talents for you. Amen.

God has given you many blessings, look for ways you can share your talents and gifts with others.

Our Jewish sage describes a model household that is governed by a wife's wisdom. What do you find appealing in this portrayal?

Paul speaks of the unknown day upon which Christ will return as coming "like a thief in the night" and as the inescapable "labour pains" of a woman about to give birth. Why do you think Paul uses such jarring imagery?

Jesus teaches about the importance of using our God-given gifts faithfully and prudently. What would be a natural gift you have used well in your life?
